Columbus, Ga., Aug. 27.—Andrew Rosier, negro, is in jail charged with firing the store of T. W. Fortson, at Fortson, Ga., several nights ago. A peculiar feature of the case is that Rosier's father-in-law and sister-in-law are the principal prosecuting witnesses. There seems to be little doubt as to his guilty, as he has some articles in his possession that are admittedly stolen from the store.

Griffin, Ga, Aug. 27.—Artie Harris, a negro 25 years old, is in jail charged with attempting to wreck a southbound Southern passenger train Saturday night. The train was stopped for the purpose of ejecting a drunken negro passenger when it was discovered that a sidetrack switch had been thrown and locked. Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 27.—B. Frank Rees, club man, capitalist and member of one of the oldest and most prominent families in Chattanooga, was killed and W. E. Love, Jr., of this city, and William Hendricks, formerly of Chattanooga, but now of New York, were seriously injured in an automobile accident here Sunday afternoon.

They were traveling at a rapid rate up Carter street in the west portion of the city when the wind blew Mr. Rees' hat off. Mr. Rees was driving the machine and when he removed his hands from the steering wheel it reversed suddenly to the left and plunged across the sidewalk down a steep embankment about 20 feet in height.

Mr. Rees was thrown out, together with the others in the machine, which turned turtle, the running board striking and breaking his back besides which other injuries were sustained. Mr. Rees died in a few minutes. Hendrick sustained a broken nose and severe sprains of the back, while Love sustained a fractured shoulder and other bruises. The injured men were at once taken to the hospital.

Mr. Rees was Chattanooga's best known and most popular clubman.

FATAL EXPLOSION.

Occurred in Powder Works Near Oakland, Calif.

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 27.—An explosion occurred at the Dupont de Nemour powder works, on the bay sixteen miles north of the city Saturday, in which two persons were killed. The loss to the plant is $50,000.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—When the 3,000 employees of the California Fruit Canners' Association who work in the big establishment of the company on Van Ness avenue in this city felt the shock they thought it was an earthquake and rushed into the streets.

During the stampede a number of persons were thrown down and trampled upon.

At least thirteen persons were badly hurt. Seven Italian women were removed to the Central Emergency hospital; three other women were taken to their homes and three more who were injured were treated at the cannery.

When the force of the explosion was first felt several men, Italian employees, went into the street to investigate the cause. On entering the building they said it was an earthquake and this started the stampede.

During the efforts to get outside a few men drew knives and wounded several persons. Others jumped into a chute used to send cars to a part of the establishment and were landed in a heap at the bottom.

4 KILLED: 30 INJURED.

Fatal Accident Occurs Near Sapula, Indian Territory.

Sapula, I. T., Aug. 27.—Four persons were killed and thirty injured Saturday afternoon when westbound St. Louis and San Francisco passenger train No. 407, due in Tulsa at 3:35 p. m. and eastbound passenger train No. 412, both loaded heavily with excursionists, collided head on near this city.

The wreck is said to have been due to the failure of the dispatcher at Sapula to issue an order to the eastbound train to take the siding at Red Fork.

Engineer Bentz met death bravely. Fireman Haner shouted that the crash was coming and said to jump. Bentz replied, "Jump yourself; I am going to stick to the engine," and threw the airbrake in an effort to prevent the collision. The property loss will be heavy.

KILLED POLICE OFFICER.

Fatal Shooting Affray Occurred Saturday Night at Cedartown, Ga.

Cedartown, Ga., Aug. 27.—Cedartown was shocked Sunday morning by the news of the killing Saturday night of Policeman Lawrence Hunt by Ed Walker, which occurred at Moore's store on Gibson street.

There are conflicting stories of the homicide, but the best information obtainable is about as follows:

Six or eight men were in the store and a difficulty arose, when Policeman Hunt drew his pistol and fired twice, one ball passing through the hand of Charles Walker, a Central railway conductor, and the other hitting Tebe Young, another railroad man.

The scuffle continued and Ed Walker, a brother to the conductor, who was was also a railroader, grabbed Hunt's gun and wrenched it from his hand, throwing Hunt to the floor. Walker fired three shots at the officer, while standing over him, one shot passing through his brain and killing him instantly. Walker was lodged in jail, the other two men being also arrested.

Hunt was a brave officer and the unfortunate affair is regretted by the friends of all parties.

RETURNS INCREASE.

Temperance Seems To Be Gaining Ground Over the State.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The report of the commissioner of internal revenue for the fiscal year, endnig June 30, 1907, shows that Georgia paid into the national treasury $632,440.98 for revenue purposes, an increase over 1906 of $57,554.29. With the exception of North Carolina and one or two other states, showing a great decrease on account of temperance legislation, the receipts of the government from the distillation of ardent spirits show an increase of nearly $13,000,000 for the year.

The total receipts from all the states approximated $150,000,000, but it would seem that the temperance movement is making headway in that the taxes from retail dealers decreased $96,937.68 during the year.

Mysterious Disappearance of Brooklyn, N. Y., School Teacher.

Dover, N. J., Aug. 27.—Miss Agnes Maguire, a school teacher of Brooklyn, N. Y., who was spending her vacation at Nolans Point, Lake Hopatcong, has mysteriously disappeared.

Saturday night she went driving with her cousin, Charles Maguire. He left her in the buggy and went to a deserted cottage known as Camp Looy, to get some of his personal belongings. Five minutes later he returned to find that the young woman had strangely disappeared.

Hundreds of persons searched the woods and the lake, but found no traces of the missing girl.

INSURRECTION BREAKS OUT.

Government Authorities of San Luis Made Prisoners.

Buenos Ayres, Aug. 27.—A local revolution broke out Saturday night in the city of San Luis, capital of the province of San Luis, a town of 11,000 inhabitants and situated about 140 miles southeast of Buenos Ayres.

The chief of police was the leader of the insurrection and the government and other provincial authorities were made prisoners. The insurrectionists chose a new governor named Adaro and installed him in office.

News from San Luis says that complete quiet has been restored and further disturbances are not anticipated.

Sold Coat to Buy Rope.

Gressell, W. Va., Aug. 27.—The body of a man found hanging to a tree near Broad Oaks has been identified as that of Jack Gallagher, of this place, who has been missing for several weeks. Vigorous inquiry developed the fact that Gallagher after leaving here, went to Broad Oaks and tried to get some money. He then tried to get a piece of rope, and failing in this, it is claimed, sold his coat and bought a rope with which he finally hanged himself.

The tug was in the river engaged in towing mud scows from the dredge Standard.

The Barnstable was not damaged.

The dredge has been at work near Seven Foot Knoll, widening and deepening the channel.

The men, it is said, were returning to the Standard on the tug from a visit to the city.

The names of those drowned have not been learned.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

Conference of Cotton Manufacturers and Operatives.

Fall River, Mass., Aug. 27.—An important meeting of cotton manufacturers and operatives will be held here Tuesday to endeavor to settle a difference which has arisen.

The operatives demand a [illegible] standard of length of every piece of goods woven as a basis for wages.

After protracted negotiations the manufacturers consented to put the standard of length for print cloth at 47½ yards.

The hitch came over the refusal of the mill owners to pay for weaving goods of odd classifications at prices in proportion to that paid for print cloths at 47½ yards' length. It is generally believed that an agreement will be reached.

Twenty thousand operatives employed in seventy-eight mills are interested in the outcome of the meeting.

PEOPLE SHOCKED.

When Frick's New Church Chimes Played Giddy Tunes.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—The set of chimes costing $12,000 which H. C. Frick presented to Calvary Protestant Episcopal church, have been hung and were played for the first time.

The chimes were made at Troy, N. Y., and the maker came on here to play them for the first time. The program included everything from "Holy, Holy, Holy," and "Come, All Ye Faithful," to "Waiting at the Church" and "Won't You Come Home, Bill Bailey? Won't You Come Home? Bill Bailey? Won't You Come Home? Splash me?"

Some of the people are scandalized and are wondering what Mr. Frick will say about it. They all agree, however, that the chimes are very fine.

Poor Crop in Mississippi.

Columbus, Ga., Aug. 27.—Lindsey P. Humber, who has just returned from a trip to the delta section of Mississippi, says the cotton crop there is perhaps the poorest known. The crop is backward and the plant is small. Mr. Humber says that the poor cotton crops are not confined to Mississippi as he has seen many fields in Georgia and Alabama where the outlook is discouraging.

Niagara Movement.

Boston, Aug. 27.—The Niagara movement, the promoters of which include many prominent white and negro educators of the negro race, has begun its annual meeting here. During its five days' session the society will observe the one hundredth anniversary of the abolition of the slave trade and the centennary of the birth of Whittier, Longfellow and Agassiz.

Yes sir.

Did you buy the whiskey from Mr. Beville?

Yes sir.

You say you know the kind of whiskey it was?

Yes sir.

Do you know the quality of it?

I should say first quality, by the price.

He sold it at a first-quality price?

I suppose so.

Where did you say it was?

In his place of business.

Who did you say saw you pay for it?

Mr. Stanley.

How long have you lived in Gainesville?

Since the 20th day of February.

What do you do here?

I am a carpenter.

Who did you first tell that you bought the whiskey?

I didn't tell anyone.

How came you here in court?

I was summoned here by the court.

This is the first time you have ever told it in your life?

Yes sir. This is the first time I have ever told it openly, and where everybody could hear it.

Tell me to whom you told it first?

R. M. Stanley. Mr. Stanley was with me and I told him when I bought it.

Where were you when you first told him about it?

I was at Vallie Newbern's bicycle shop.

Did you ever tell Mr. Kite about it?

Yes sir.

Were you offered anything as a reward to testify in this case?

No sir.

Nobody offered you $50 to have anything to do with this case?

No sir.

How much have you been offered?

Well, it was somewhere between $10 and $50. I don't want to tell how much.

Who offered it to you?

Mr. Kite, policeman.

The man who made the arrest of this defendant?

Yes sir.

Have you got the money?

No sir.

Have you been paid anything?

No sir.

You still expect to get it in the future?

It has not been paid. No sir.

Who was in the house when you bought it?

I told you that Mr. Stanley, Mr. Beville and myself.

On last Saturday night, the 24th of August, were you not present with Walter Geere and Mr. Rhinehart on East Main street in the city of Gainesville, in front or about the property owned by N. D. Phillips, about 12 or 1 o'clock at night on said Saturday last, and also in the presence of this defendant, and say in the presence of these parties or any of them and to this defendant, that you knew nothing of the defendant selling whiskey?

I was with them, yes sir, and told them that I was broke and had no money.

And was offered a reward of $50 in money to testify in this case, and all that you wanted was the money, and if this defendant would pay your mother's board and give you a ticket to Tampa you would have no more to do with it, and leave town, and the defendant refused to pay your fare?

At somewhere about 12 o'clock I was with these parties in front of the Arnold House, and we three got to talking about the whiskey and they asked me if I knew anything about it. I told them that I didn't know anything of it—I didn't know that I was going to have to appear before the Mayor. And he offered to pay my mother's board and give me a ticket to Tampa. I have never asked him for it, but he offered me all the money that I wanted if I would leave town, because he thought that I was going to appear against him in this court, and he told me all that I had to do was just to name the price—instead of me asking him for it he offered it to me, and it seems to me that he is guilty, or he would not have offered me this.

You refused to take the money when he offered it to you?

I did not take it.

Now state who it was that offered you any reward, who was it that was to pay you anything? Who made you the offer?

Mr. Kite said the city would pay it.

When was the offer made to you? When did he tell you that?

I don't remember what day it was.

Was it since last Saturday?

No sir.

Has he talked with you since last Saturday?

Yes sir.

Nothing was said about this reward?

No sir.

Has anybody mentioned the reward to you since last Saturday?

No sir. Nobody has said anything to me about the reward.

Have you ever bought any whiskey from this defendant before?

Yes sir.

Re-Direct Examination.

You say you bought whiskey from this defendant on other occasions?

Yes sir.

How many times?

I bought whiskey twice.

Was it before or since buying the whiskey that Mr. Kite told you about the reward, and did you tell him about buying the whiskey?

Yes sir, I told Him.

When was it you bought the whis--ey from him the first time?

On the 10th of August.

Was that in the daytime or night?

At night.

Cross Examination.

Who was present when you bought it the first time?

George Kile.

Is he here in the court room?

No sir.

How much did you pay him for it?

Seventy-five cents a pint.

What kind of whiskey was it?

Rye.

How much did he have on hand?

I don't know how much of it he had on hand. I saw a pint of it.

Did you see any more?

I saw some more on the counter.

What kind of bottles?

Two pint bottles.

Where were they at?

I saw them lying on the counter.

Two pint bottles?

Yes sir.

There were three?

At that time there were two.

The second witness for the city, R. M. Stanley, testified on direct examination as follows:

Where do you live?

My home is at Dublin, Ga.

You reside in Gainesville?

Yes sir.

Do you know Mr. Beville?

Yes sir, I have seen him.

He is charged with selling intoxicating liquor in violation of the ordinances of the city of Gainesville on

ALLEN HAILE'S HOME BURNED MONDAY

Misfortune of One of Gainesville's Well Known Young Men.

THE ORIGIN WAS INCENDIARY

Entire Home and Contents Lost, Entailing Loss of About $2,000—No One on Premises But Colored Hand When Conflagration Occurred.

The elegant country home of Allen Haile, together with all its furniture, was burned to the ground sometime during Monday night, the origin being incendiary.

This home was located about twelve miles west of the city, and was one of the most comfortable in that section. The house contained five rooms, and was handsomely furnished.

There was no one on the premises at the time of the fire except a colored servant, who brought the news to the city.

The loss will aggregate between $1,800 and $2,000, with only $600 insurance.

A strange coincidence is the fact that the home of J. M. Haile, brother of Allen Haile, located only a couple of hundred yards apart, was burned of incendiary origin about two weeks ago.

Friends of Mr. Haile sympathize with him in the loss.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—SAM H. GWIN, Concord, Ga. For sale by all druggists.

PROCEEDINGS IN CASE OF BEVILLE

August 21, 1907; go on and tell the court what you know, if anything.

Well, on last Saturday night I was with Mr. Corbett. We were going up the street and we met with Mr. Stanley. We walked down town and turned around the corner, (naming several corners). I stopped on the outside, and after a little he came back to the door and told me to "come in, old bo," and have some cider with him (Corbett), and I went in the store. There was another man there sitting down. He drank a half glass and I drank a glass (or a half glass), and it had the desired effect. After the other man walked out we stayed there a little while. And in a few minutes he (Corbett) wrote something on a piece of paper and handed it across the counter to Beville. I did not know what he wrote. After the paper was handed him he walked back into the back end of the store and brought back with him a pint of whiskey. And Corbett threw down seventy-five cents on the counter, and he asked me if I "ever drink anything, Stanley?" and I says, "I don't care, I never refuse."

Did you drink any while you were still in there?

Yes sir.

What went with the money?

It was on the counter. Mr. Beville had still not picked it up. I then turned around to sit down on a chair and Mr. Beville then picked up the money and put it in his pocket.

What kind of whiskey was it?

Rye.

Mr. Stanley, did you buy any whiskey.

No sir.

Buy any on other occasions?

No sir.

Cross Examination.

Who was in the house besides you, Corbett and this man?

No one else was there.

Did you see any whiskey besides that he bought?

No sir.

Was there three bottles lying upon the counter?

He got it from under the counter.

Didn't have it lying loose upon the counter, then?

No sir. Had it been upon the counter, I would have seen it.

When you went to the store did you see the defendant?

Yes sir.

Did you know whether John ———, Eli Poke were in there sitting down when you went in?

I do not know them. One man was in the store, but I don't remember his name.

And you did not see those other two?

No sir.

Have you been offered any reawrd?

No sir.

Don't expect to get anything?

No sir.

Just had a summons served on you as a witness?

Yes sir.

Who did you first tell about it?

Well, I haven't told anyone in particular about it. Mr. Kite asked me about it. He asked me and I told him.

No reward has been promised to you?

No sir, never have been promised a reward.

R. H. Corbett was then called to the stand to explain former testimony.

Statement—in regard to the three pints. These three pints were not there when I got mine, but one pint was there. When I returned two pints were there and he (Osteen) bought them.

Who was the party that bought the next when you went in there?

George Osteen.

Osteen bought the two bottles on the counter?

He went and called for them and Beville got them. Osteen took one and put it into his pocket. I put the other in my pocket for him.

You never bought it?

No sir. I took it.

He bought it and you took it?

I took one and we walked over to Vallie Newbern's bicycle shop. I got it for him and he paid for it. Beville gave it to him and he took one and I took one and when we got over to Vallie Newbern's shop I gave the other to Osteen.

Did you drink any of it?

Yes sir.

Night Policeman C. L. Kite was the third witness for the city, and testified as follows:

Do you know the defendant, B. P. Beville?

Yes sir.

He is charged with selling intoxicating liquo, last Saturday night in violation of the ordinances of the city of Gainesville. Go on and tell anything you know about it.

Well, I told Mr. Corbett that I would like to get him to help me catch some "tigers," and that there was a reward of $50 offered by the county for the man that would furnish the evidence. Mr. Corbett came over to my room Saturday morning and told me that his mother was here and that he would like to send her home, but that he could not pay his mother's board and her railroad fare to Georgia. I gave him a check for $10, which you will find in the First National Bank. He said to me that he would see me up town that night. He left my room and Saturday night I came down town and he came to me and told me that his friend was down town and we could get him to go to Beville's. I walked over to ———, right in front of Mr. Beville's store, so that I could see through a building. The boys went in there and I saw Mr. Corbett run his hand down into his pocket and lay something on the counter. They staid there awhile and I saw Mr. Corbett reach over and pick up something and put his hand into his back pocket. I left the place where I was and came up on the street and met Mr. ——— and asked him where Mr. Corbett was, and he told me that Corbett had just left the bicycle shop with several parties who had been in there drinking. Bennett was going on and talking with the boys and told me that he would like to see his friend and he would like for me to meet him. I told him I had never met his friend and that I would meet them on the street. He went and got him and I asked him where he got the whiskey, and I left the place and went around and made the arrest.

Cross Examination.

Did you see any money pass?

I saw Mr. Corbett hand something, but I could not swear it was money from where I was. I saw Mr. Corbett put the package in his pocket, and it was whiskey.

Did you go in the house that night?

I did in the course of three-quarters of an hour, or possibly more. I was with both men from the time I made the arrest.

Did you search for more whiskey in the place?

I did.

Did you find any?

No.

You had secured Mr. Corbett to help you catch this man in the act of selling whiskey?

Yes sir, he told me he would help me.

So you let him have as much as $10?

Yes sir. Saturday morning. I loaned him $10 which he was to pay me back in two weeks. He had no money and needed it to send his mother home.

Question by Mayor Thomas.

You gave him some money as a loan?

Yes sir. He was to pay it back out

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair, yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains no poison of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. BAILEY'S IGNORANCE.

The Live Oak Democrat says: "In a speech he made the other day at a Confederate reunion in Texas, Senator Bailey exposed his horrible ignorance of the most celebrated climax in American history by stating that Grant rejected the proffered sword of Lee at the surrender at Appomatox. This is awful, coming from a United States Senator and one, too, supposed to be an unusually well informed man in the history of his own country. There was no offer of Lee's sword to Grant at Appomatox, after the fashion of the pictures in the old school histories of the surrender of Cornwallis and Burgoyne, and the fact has been so repeatedly stated on the highest authority, including Grant himself, that there is no excuse for any American citizen who knows how to read, to be ignorant on the subject. At Appomatox two sensible American soldiers, both of whom heartily despised ostentation and cheap dramatic effects, met to conclude a business transaction in a business way. Lee had no more thought of offering Grant his sword than he had of offering him his watch, and Grant had no more thought of demanding the former than the latter. When Bailey gets before an audience that will stand for it, he says some very absurd things at times, but he fairly surpassed himself in reviving the silly fiction of Lee handing his sword to Grant and the latter magnanimously returning it."

GOOD FOR LAKE CITY.

Lake City Reporter: The Elks' Club House on west side Lake DeSoto presents, in its finished condition, an imposing appearance. It is pleasantly located on the lake, with wide verandas reaching all the way round the building, with plenty of yard space on either side and back, the pleasantest location that could have been found anywhere for the building of such a home. Every Elk is proud of this handsome structure and all citizens as well. The building has been completed with the exception of a few minor details. We hope in a short time to have this handsome building furnished and ready for the reception of members and their visiting brethern. The building is of artificial stone and fitted with all modern conveniences, and was built, and will be furnished, at an expense of about $10,000. Lake City never does things by halves, as the handsome buildings scattered over our beautiful little city will testify.

Figures from the Department of Commerce and Labor show a steady increase in the tide of immigration that is flowing into this country. There has been an annual immigration of over 1,000,000 for each year of the past three years, the high record being made in 1906 with 1,200,000 aliens. But the figures for July just past are 97,132, an increase of 15 per cent over the figures for the same month of last year. There is this to be said, however, that there were fewer deportations and the Immigration Bureau states that this was not due to more lax inspection, but that the standard of immigrants was actually higher. It is of course to be regretted that so much of this immense tide is congested in the big cities, when there is a real demand for immigrant labor in the country districts, and especially in the South. But it is believed that the newly established Bureau of Information for immigrants in the Department of Commerce and Labor may do something to obviate this trouble.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Dispatches from Manila announce that on the back of the local election where some of the most notorious insurrectionists were chosen for the insular Legislature there have been mob processions before the Governor's palace where the American flag was insulted and where the rebel flag was given the place of honor in the parade. One might think that this country had had enough of bestowing the franchise on people who were not ready to receive it by several generations of training. But experience in this case seems to have been a poor teacher. Experienced observers assured Secretary Taft before he ever left Manila that the Filipinos were short of voting age by about 200 years. But the Government must needs insist on thrusting the ballot into the hands of a people who had not only never used it but had never seen it used. Shrewd political agitators, not unlike the carpet-baggers of reconstruction days, were quick enough to see the use they might make of the situation, and the result is that the Government is not thanked by the enfranchised natives and has a potential revolution simmering under its nose again. The civil government of the islands is up against the White Man's Burden again, and this time with complications.

Hon. John N. C. Stockton acknowledges in an interview in The Metropolis of last Monday that he has received many letters and personal solicitations from people all over the State urging him to become a candidate for Governor, and says that he is giving the matter serious consideration. Many persons who opposed his candidacy for United States Senator have voluntarily promised him their support if he enters the race for Governor.

LIVELY TIMES IN THRIVING NEWBERRY

One Death and One Injury Caused by Accident of Tra ns.

SENSATIONAL JUSTICE COURT

Young White Man Took Horse and Buggy, He Alleged, for Fun, But Justice Henderson Could See Nothing Funny and Taxed Him With a Fine.

Newberry, the hustling metropolis of the West End, has furnished her share of sensations during the past two or three days, the result of which has cost one man his life, another an arm, and the third a fine of twenty-five dollars and costs, the latter being charged with taking possession of a horse and buggy belonging to J. L. Medlin, the naval stores operator of Meredith.

On Sunday it is reported a south bound passenger train on the Atlantic Coast Line ran over a negro man, mangling him horribly, and from which he died in a few hours.

On the same day a colored boy about fifteen years of age, in an attempt to board a moving train, lost his foothold and fell between the cars. One of the trucks passed over an arm, badly lacerating the same that amputation was necessary to save the boy's life. The operation was performed by Drs. Howell and Getzen.

A negro woods rider employed by J. L. Medlin, the naval stores operator of Meredith, drove to Newberry and hitched his horse to a rack in the street. When he returned he was astonished to find the horse and buggy missing and suspicious for their absence. After wandering aimlessly about the vicinity of Newberry for several hours he finally found the horse and vehicle. In the meantime the officers had been notified, and later a young white man by the name of Hathcox was arraigned before Justice Henderson's court, where it is alleged he stated that he did not intend to steal the horse and buggy, but took it "just for fun," intending to return it. He did not explain why he failed to come back with the team. He was fined $25 and costs for disorderly conduct.

of the $50 for furnishing the evidence.

G. D. Folks testified as follows:

Mr. Folks, do you know the defendant, Mr. Beville?

Yes sir, I have seen him several times and know him when I see him.

He is charged with selling intoxicating liquor in the city of Gainesville in violation of the ordinances of the city. Go on and tell what you know, if anything, about him selling liquor.

I have been in his place two or three times and about the 4th of July I went in and asked him if he had any thing good and strong to drink, and I told him I wanted some of it to drink. He told me he had some cider, and I told him to fill the glass half full of cider and if he had anything good and strong to finish filling it up with something stronger. He filled the glass full of cider and whiskey, and I drank it.

You drank it, did you?

I drank it, yes sir.

It had the desired effect?

Yes sir.

Did you ever go into his place of business?

A few times.

Cross Examination.

What kind of whiskey was it?

It tasted to me like rye.

Did you ever drink any of that cider before?

Yes sir. About the 4th of July.

Was anyone else with you?

My brother. We were by ourselves.

When was this?

About the 4th of July.

Can't you testify as to the day better than that?

Somewhere about the 4th.

Question by Mayor Thomas.

Mr. Folks, was it the day that you telephoned me every hour?

Yes, sir, it was the day I got on that spree, and that was the 4th of July.

Examination by Mr. Rivers.

Did your brother drink any of it?

He drank another glass.

Did you pay for it?

Yes sir, ten cents.

What did they sell that cider for?

Why, I think a small glass is five cents and a large glass is ten cents.

You took a large glass for ten cents?

Yes sir.

Was this the regular price for the cider?

I suppose so, good cider.

J. G. Folks' Testimony.

Mr. Folks, do you know the defendant here, B. P. Beville?

Yes sir.

He is charged with selling intoxicating liquors contrary to the ordinances of the city of Gainesville. Go on and state what, if anything, you know about it.

I bought cider from him once.

Were present with your brother the 4th of July?

Yes sir.

Saw Mr. Beville "spike" it?

I bought some cider and asked him if he had anything stronger to put in a little for me.

Do you know what it was?

It tasted like whiskey to me. I could not tell just what it was.

Mr. Folks, are you familiar with the effects of drinking whiskey?

I am familiar with whiskey.

Did that bring any of the results like the drinking of whiskey?

Yes sir.

Was that an intoxicating drink that you bought?

Yes sir.

Did you pay for it, and how much?

Yes sir, I paid for it, ten cents for a glassful

Cross Examination.

Was what you drank paid for?

Yes sir, what I drank I paid for.

What I might ask is, when you got the whiskey, did you pay for the cider, and was treated to the cider, or did you pay for the whiskey? Did you pay anything for the whiskey?

I paid the same price for it, I mean for the cider and the whiskey.

Then, you didn't buy the whiskey?

I bought the cider, and nothing extra was charged for the whiskey.

I understand that is the time your brother was with you?

Yes sir.

Cross Examination.

Did your brother tell him not to fill the glass full of cider?

He told him not to fill it full if he had something else he could put in it.

Had the glass of cider been "spiked?"

Something red was poured in it that looked like whiskey.

Would you swear whether or not he treated to it or sold it to you?

I paid ten cents a glass for it.

M. M. Malphurs' Testimony.

Do you know the defendant?

Yes sir. I know Beville.

He is charged with selling intoxicating liquor contrary to the ordinances of the city of Gainesville. Go on and tell the court what you know, if anything, about it.

I don't know anything about it. Only just what I have heard. I have drank some cider that Beville kept.

Have you not bought some whiskey there yourself?

No sir.

You don't know anything about his selling whiskey?

I don't know anything.

What kind of ciders is it that you have bought from Mr. Beville?

I have never thought his cider intoxicating.

Mr. Malphurs, have you never drank cider until you were drunk?

No sir. I have never been drunk on cider. I have bought alcohol, ginger and some cider and mixed them, and then drink it until I would get drunk, but since they have put the drug stores out of business and they did not sell alcohol ginger I can't even get a cider drunk.

Mr. Malphurs, do you never feel the effects of drinking cider that you do when you drink whiskey?

No sir.

Then cider will not have the effect to make you drunk?

No sir. I have been on a alcohol ginger drunk when I would mix the ginger and cider.

All testimony for the prosecution having been offered the defense called W. T. Gore as first witness.

Where do you live?

I live in Gainesville.

On the 24th of August, last Saturday night, where were you about 12 or 1 o'clock at night?

I was coming along the street, coming along this way. I saw Mr. Beville and Mr. Corbett in front of Dr. Phillips' house, which is now called the Arnold House.

Was it Mr. R. H. Corbett?

Yes sir.

He was present?

Yes sir.

Who else?

H. G. Rhinehart.

Anybody else?

Mr. Beville, the defendant.

Anybody else?

Myself.

Did you hear anything?

Yes sir.

Tell the substance of what you heard.

They were at first walking along, and then they sat down on the curbing on the edge of the sidewalk. I heard Corbett say that he was offered $50 to testify against Beville, and he really didn't know anything about it and he did not want to do it, but he was in hard luck and needed money to pay his mother's board and railroad fare to go home, and if he had a ticket to Tampa he would leave town on the first train.

Did Mr. Beville hear this?

Yes sir.

Did he refuse to do it?

Yes sir; Mr. Beville refused to give him anything.

Where were they the last time you saw them?

They were sleeping together in the bed.

Did they make any threat? Or anything paid?

No sir. He hung around Beville like he was going to get it.

Do you know Mr. Folks that you heard testify about buying cider on the 4th of July and also some whiskey?

Yes sir.

From Mr. Beville?

Yes sir.

Do you know where the defendant was the 4th?

Yes sir, in Jacksonville with me. We were there drilling with the Gainesville Guards. Beville was with me and we were there until Saturday night, and we got back to Gainesville about 10:30 on the G. & G.

You got back here Saturday night?

Yes sir.

You were in Jacksonville the 4th, 5th and 6th?

Yes sir.

Cross Examination.

Mr. Goore, do you know whether or not this man has sold any whiskey?

THE AUTHORITATIVE FASHIONS FOR FALL

Mrs. Osborn, America's Foremost Modiste, Comments on the Relation of Climate to Styles.

Copyright 1907, The Delineator, New York.

"The thinking of styles today as compared with those of the past," says Mrs. Osborn in The Delineator for November, "when fashions were so much predetermined, I have come to the conclusion that there is one paramount difference, one prominent advantage, namely: the reason back of present fashions, the cause of innovation. That cause is the demand for comfort, the demand on the part of women for clothes that shall suit all and every time."

Fashion in America markedly considers the climate. The women are gradually learning, also, that it is much more comfortable to wear thinner fabrics and to put on, regulating the [illegible] by adding a supply of outer clothing, or take off as the temperature demands. PROCEEDINGS IN CASE OF BEVILLE

I do not know, sir. I sure do not.

Do you know whether Mr. Corbett, when he and Mr. Beville were talking together, said anything to him as to what he would do if he would go?

No sir.

He never promised Mr. Corbett that he would pay him any money?

No sir. I didn't hear it if he did.

Did you hear Corbett ask him for the money and tell him that he was broke?

Yes sir, I did.

Corbett to Beville?

Yes sir.

How long before had they been talking about it?

About five minutes.

There were three present, Corbett, Rhinehart and yourself?

Yes sir. We staid there about five minutes.

How did that matter come up?

Corbett said that more ——— him and that he thought B——— turned Beville up. They were all talking about it and he (Corbett) said maybe his partner turned him up and that he was offered $50 to testify against him.

Did he say he had ever bought any whiskey?

He said he had never bought any.

Did Beville offer to pay Corbett any money to leave the town, or did Corbett ask Beville for it?

He stated that he wanted some money and that he had to have enough to pay his mother's board and buy her railroad fare home, and that he wanted a ticket to Tampa., and then he would take the first train out.

While Mr. Beville was there?

Yes sir.

Beville did not state whether or not he was going to give him any money?

No sir. We then went to the McCrew House and I went to the room where they were going to sleep together. They were there until next morning, about 7:30.

Were they drinking together that night?

They drank some.

Were they not too drunk to know what they were doing?

I have never been so drunk that I didn't know what I was talking about.

T. Stanley's Testimony.

Where were you the 10th of August?

I was at work at Eddins' mill with Geo Kile. This young man was with me, the young man that was with Mr. Goore.

You say you were with Mr. Kile?

Mr. Kile was working with me that day at Eddins' mill. We had been working together about three weeks.

Cross Examination.

Did he come uptown that night?

Well, I cannot say.

Do you know whether he came uptown that night or not?

No sir.

H. G. Rhinehart Testified.

Last Saturday night, the 24th of August, I think, were you on East University street in front or about the property of Dr. Phillips, now the Hotel House?

Yes sir.

Who was present?

Mr. Goore and I and Mr. Bennett were together and we met Mr. Corbett and Mr. Beville, (Mr. Corbett testified for the city). They were sitting on the curbing and talking and when we came up they were talking about Mr. Beville being arrested. Mr. Corbett did not know anything about it. He said he had not bought any whiskey and had only bought two glasses of cider, and that was all he knew. And said Beville's partner should have turned him up, but he did not know.

Did he say anything about any reward?

Yes sir. He talked about a $50 reward.

Tell about what you remember about this reward?

He said that he had been hard up for money and that he needed some money.

Did he make any offer to Beville?

He said if he would pay his fare to Tampa and his mother's board and his mother's railroad fare to her home, that his tool chest or box out of the office that he would get and leave at once.

Did he make any other offer to Mr. Beville?

Yes sir.

Cross Examination.

Mr. Rhinehart, what did you say about that he had not bought any whiskey, only two glasses of cider? Just what you said then?

I said that I didn't know anything about selling whiskey.

What I am asking you, Mr. Rhinehart, is, did he say that he did not buy any whiskey, and did he say he knew nothing about it?

I bought two glasses of cider and no whiskey.

Then, what you said on your direct examination that he said he didn't know anything about it?

I said that he told us that he didn't know anything about Mr. Beville selling whiskey.

What he was saying that he did not know anything about who turned him up?

I don't know.

On any other occasion did he say that he had bought any from him?

He said what I just said.

He says that he has bought any from Mr. Beville?

I don't know anything about it?

What was Mr. Corbett's condition when he was with Mr. Beville? Was he in his normal condition?

He seemed to be.

Well, I will get you to tell whether he was full of booze or not when you last saw him and Mr. Beville together?

I don't know, he had been drinking some cider.

Testimony of J. H. Spence.

Do you know R. M. Stanley? Is he in the room?

Yes. (The one who testified for the city.)

Did you see him any time this week?

Yes sir.

Did you see him any time last week?

He came in the store of Mr. Goode, where I am working, and mentioned about Mr. Beville being arrested. He stated he didn't know anything about it. I told him I heard that Mr. Corbett had done it. He said he didn't know who.

Cross Examination.

He said that he did not know who turned Mr. Beville up?

He didn't know who reported him. I asked him if he knew any more about it, and his answer was that he didn't know anything about it.

Then he did not say that he did not know anything about the selling of whiskey?

He simply said he didn't know who reported Mr. Beville.

Re-Direct Examination.

Did he say that he bought any whiskey from this defendant, and that he knew nothing about it?

I asked him if he had talked with Mr. Beville, and he told me that he thought Mr. Corbett was the one who did the reporting.

And not whether or not anyone bought it?

No sir.

George Osteen.

Do you know R. H. Corbett?

Yes sir.

Was Corbett with you on the 10th of August, and was that the day that you and he together went into the place of business of this defendant and that you bought two pints of whiskey and paid a $1.50 for them, and you took one bottle and Corbett took the other and went across to Vallie Newbern's bicycle shop and there drank some of it? Is that true?

No sir.

Did you buy any whiskey from the defendant

No sir.

Cross Examination.

Mr. Osteen, who was with you when you went in the defendant's place of business last Saturday night? Or were you there?

Yes sir, I was there.

Did you have any whiskey?

Yes sir.

Where did you get that whiskey?

From Jacksonville. I got it from a friend in Jacksonville, and a man brought it from there for me.

A colored fellow?

Yes sir.

Who was he?

Ben Richardson.

This man brought it for you from Jacksonville?

Yes sir.

Mr. Osteen, did you not pay for that whiskey Saturday night in the defendant's place of business?

No sir.

Did you know any whiskey was there?

No sir.

You didn't pay him (defendant) any money?

Yes sir, I paid him money.

Never have bought any whiskey from the defendant?

No sir.

Never got any whiskey out of his place of business?

No sir.

Redirect Examination.

Were you in the bicycle shop on this day

No sir.

In Vallie Newbern's shop?

No sir.

Did you give them any money to pay for the liquor?

I got the liquor that was brought for me from Jacksonville.

So you didn't get that liquor from the defendant?

No sir.

This closed the testimony, and the case was submitted to the court without argument, when Mayor Thomas passed sentence as above stated.

Tried to Disqualify Mayor.

When Beville was arrested he made affidavit that Mayor Thomas was prejudiced in the case, that he could not get justice before him, etc., and asked that the case be tried by the president of the Council, but the mayor denied the motion and proceeded with the trial. As to whether his verdict is justified by the evidence, we leave the public to judge.

In Clutches of County.

Immediately after securing bond on appeal of the city case, Mr. Beville was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Sheriff Fennell for the county. He was taken before Justice Colman, waived examination and gave bond in the sum of $400.

This evidence is published by special request, and it has taxed our linotype machine and operator to their full capacity to present the entire testimony in one issue.

A special meeting of the City Council was held Monday evening, at which time an ordinance providing for the paving of Church street east from the intersection of that street with Oak avenue to Franklin street, East Gainesville, four blocks, was introduced and passed upon its first and second readings and ordered engrossed. DR. CORR TO DADE CITY.

Will Assume Principalship of Dade City High School.

Dr. P. W. Corr, during the term of the State Normal recently closed a member of the faculty of that school, left Tuesday for Dade City, where he has accepted the principalship of the Dade City high school.

It may be interesting to state that Dr. Corr, who is one of the most widely known educators in the State, and one of the oldest in time of service, was the first man who was ever principal of the Gainesville public school for two years in succession, and he could have held the position indefinitely, but was compelled to relinquish same on account of failing health.

After regaining his health this distinguished educator resumed his profession as an instructor, since which time he has had much experience in normal and other school work. He was highly complimented by State Superintendent W. M. Holloway on his work in physical geography at the Jasper Normal Institute, and was consequently assigned to that branch of study in the State Normal.

Former County Superintendent J. H. Girardeau, of Jefferson county, also paid Dr. Corr a high compliment when he stated that his work in mathematics was the finest he had seen since the death of his own father, who was in his day a teacher of State-wide reputation.

Dr. Corr's family will remain in Gainesville until arrangements can be made for them in their new home. Their numerous friends here will regret very much when the time arrives for their departure.
